December 23, 1963 October 26, 1989
Happy Birthday Merry Christmas

*After the winter comes the spring.
To show us again that in everything.
There's always renewal divinely planned.
Flawlessly perfect
the work of God's hand....
And just like the seasons
that come and go
When the flowers of spring
lay buried in snow,
God sends to the heart in its
winter of sadness
A springtime awakening of new hope and gladness....
And loved ones who sleep in a season of death
Will, too, be awakened by God's life-giving breath.*

Merry Christmas and Happy Birthday

Memories are treasures that no one can steal. Your death brought a heartache that only time can heal. Some may forget you now that you're gone, but we'll always remember no matter how long.
Not a day passes by without a wonderful thought of the Love and Happiness your presence brought. We know in our hearts God will help us through, because no one else will ever be you. We love you.

Love,
Mama, Sherry, Donald and

NOVEMBER DEATHS, SAVANNAH 1820

This is the concluding installment of the death list for Savannah published in 1820 by Henry P. Russell. Entitled "An Official Register of the Deaths which occurred among the white population in the City of Savannah, during the Extraordinary Season of Sickness and Mortality which prevailed in the Summer and Fall Months of the year 1820," this pamphlet can be found in the libraries at the University of Georgia and Duke University, Durham, N.C.

Russell notes, "Those persons to whose name no disease is annexed, died of FEVER. Where no AGE is mentioned, it is either UNKNOWN, or under TWO YEARS." The enumeration is divided into five vertical columns headed: Day of Burial, Names, Age, Country, Disease, etc.

QUESTIONS FROM OUR READERS

King

Mrs. Darice W. Lord, 3546 N. 7th St., Milwaukee, Wis. 53212, is working on a King lineage. ADDISON KING and his wife are said to have been in Georgia, moved to Carroll Co., Miss., where some of their children were born.

DR. CHARLES RUFUS KING, a son, came back to Atlanta and died there. Mrs. Lord has already obtained the court records on Dr. King, as well as his burial data from Westview Cemetery, Atlanta. Another son was also buried adjoining Dr. King in the Westview lot.

Mrs. Lord is searching for another son, THOMAS KING, who moved to Arkansas and left one daughter.

Can anyone give Mrs. Lord help on either the earlier history of Addison King, or son Thomas King?

EDITOR'S NOTE: A query to the Atlanta Historical Society, Peachtree Road, N.E., Atlanta, Ga., might uncover records, probably the printed obituary, of Dr. C.R. King. They have extensive collections of data on persons who lived in Atlanta, and its region during the 1800's. Certainly Mrs. Lord would get some help from obtaining a copy of the obituary for Dr. King, for in that day the life history of the deceased as well as his parents were generally printed in the obituary. This would be in much greater detail than anything usually found in the legal records.

In addition, Mrs. Lord probably can find Atlanta and its Environs, a two volume history of Atlanta and its people, by Mr. Franklin Garrett, in the Milwaukee Public Library, or at least obtain these volumes in interlibrary loan. Mr. Garrett compiled extensive records of the development of the city and each year's sketch ends with the list of persons dying within the year. His book is thoroughly indexed as well so searching is simplified.

By the way, to obtain a photostat of the obituary of Dr. C.R. King, Mrs. Lord can write the Atlanta Public Library, Carnegie Way, N.W., Atlanta, Ga. They have a complete file of Atlanta newspapers and the facilities to reproduce the needed obituary: their price is very reasonable.

Hodges-Campbell-Park

Mrs. Hayle P. Hollis, 628 Banner Street, Camden, Arkansas wants to know who the parents were of JESSE HODGES, Born Feb. 11, 1754, died March 18, 1841 probably in Tennessee or Kentucky? Also who were parents of MARGARET (PEGGY) CAMPBELL, who married WILLIAM PARK Oct. 30, 1798 and died and was buried near Athens, Georgia.

SPECIAL NOTE TO SEARCHERS

U.S. Census Records

Good news for tired eyes! The National Archives and Records Service in 1965 has re-microfilmed the U.S. Census Records, this time preparing a much easier to read copy. Because most of the census records which have been available to searchers are those photographed years ago, and very hard to read, the N.A.R.S. is offering for sale short reels of these census records (now you don't have to purchase a whole state's records in the roll). Prices vary from $2 to $12. A price list for these microfilms can be obtained free by writing The National Archives, National Archives and Records Service, General Services Administration, Washington, D.C.

QUESTIONS FROM READERS

FORE SUBLETT

Mrs. Daniel Byrne, 175 Jones St., Mill Valley, California 94041 needs help in locating WILLIAM M. FORE, born in 1828 in Georgia. Occasionally he reported that his birth took place in N.C., but more often said in Georgia. He married ELIZABETH ALLEN about 1847, and they lived in Pulaski Co., Ky. by 1850, then moving before 1860 to Missouri. Mrs. Byrne has also located a JESSE R. FORE in the 1850 Census of Pulaski Co., who was born about 1820, and she believes he may be an older brother of William M. Fore. Jesse Fore also settled in Clay Co., Missouri. His wife was SARAH MATILDA. In the 1880 Census of Clay Co., Mo., Jesse Fore stated that both he and both his parents were born in Georgia.

One JOHN FORE went to Georgia from Virginia shortly after the Revolution. He is probably the same John Fore who married SARAH SUBLETT in Charlotte Co., Va.

INTRODUCTION

The records of the Basilica of the Immaculate Conception are the oldest on the American Gulf Coast. They begin with the document signed by Bienville, Davion, Boisbriant and de La Salle in September 1704 installing the first Catholic pastor of the Parish of Mobile.

These records provide a continual chain of births, deaths, baptisms, and marriages far into the American time.

Due to the fact that Civil Records were kept after 1813, the Cathedral Records are of little importance after that time. The very opposite however is true before that time. These records provide a year by year account of the growth and history of the city during its earliest period.

The church registers of births, deaths, marriages and baptisms have been amazingly, preserved, almost intact through the colonial period of Mobile on down to the present.

These records are located at the present in the archives of the diocese, adjacent to the Cathedral Rectory.

Except for once during the mid-1930's, these valuable registers have not left the physical possession of the Mobile church keeping. During the Works Progress Administration the contents were sent briefly to Washington as part of the National Trust for Historic Documents, classified as such and encased in protective plastic.

These priceless records are not available to the general public. The Catholic Church has seen fit not to make these records available for publication. This is why this small publication is necessary.

In preparing this book I have consulted and compiled all the known records that have been derived from these records. I can't however reveal all of the sources of these records because of the nature of some of these records. Of course many of these records were derived from Hamilton's COLONIAL MOBILE.

Frequently in the text there appears to be many errors in spelling. This was intentionally left that because that is the way they appear in the original text.

I feel that this book contains about half of the total of the Church Records. For this reason this book is intended to be only a partial reconstructed list

I, the undersigned priest and missionary apostolic, declare to all whom it may concern, that the 28th of September in the year of Salvation 1704, in virtue of letters of provision and collation granted and sealed July 20 of last year, by which Monseigneur, the most illustrious and reverend bishop of Quebec, erects a parochial church in the place called Fort Louis of Louisane, and of which he gives the cure and care to M. Henri Roullieux De la Vente, missionary apostolic of the diocese of Bayeux, I have placed the said priest in actual and corporal possession of the said parochial church and of all the rights belonging to it, after having observed the usual and requisite ceremonies, to wit, by entrance into the church sprinkling of holy water, kissing the high altar, touching the mass book, visiting the most sacred sacrament of the altar, and ringing the bells, which possession I certify that no one has opposed.

Given in the church of Fort Louis the day of the month and year above, in the presence of Jean Baptiste de Bienville, lieutenant of the King and commandant at the said fort, Pierre du C. de Boisbriant, major, Nicholas de la Salle, clerk and performing function of commissary of the marine.

Notes on "Mobile Church Records", Johnnie Andrews Jr.

There is some confusion on the Rochon material as to dates; and otherwise, three errors which are serious:

(1) 1740 - baptism, or birth, of Charles Rochon, son of Charles Rochon and Henriette Colon.

(2) How, when Henriette Colon had died in 1733? Pierre Rochon, born in 1717, was the husband of Catherine Paux (Pau, Pot.) There are a few too many Pierres and wives here, as witnessed by the marriage of "Pierre I", 1738, the birth of "Pierre III" in 1739, and then the birth of "Pierre II" in 1740. Pierre Rochon, son of Charles and Henriette Colon, married Catherine Pau. Naby she was from La Rochelle.

(3) 1750 - marriage of Marie Jeanne Simon de La Pointe to Augustine Rochon. Joseph La Pointe's daughter Jeanne did not marry Augustine Rochon, but two other men. This was her cousin. Moreover, the marriage record is not at Mobile.

1721 - marriage of d'Aubant to Charlotte von Bruns wick Wolfenbuttel. I did not see it - and I would have known what I was looking at. Neither did Peter J. Hamilton see it. One could safely say it isn't there. (See Colonial Mobile, Peter J. Hamilton. P. 194 - also Bossu.

1726 Jan. 21. - the signature is "De la Loire Flanant" As for the drowning in the Fish River - Miss Rapie thought that it was La Parde. He had, however, merely testified to the drowning, along with two other men. I told this, but did not tell her who it was who did drown .. It was not particular] relevant to what she was pursuing.

1734 - Marriage of Baudreau to La Pointe. An error. He did not marry anyone named La Pointe.

- Marriage of Marie Joseph Simon de La Pointe, daughter of Joseph Simon de La Pointe and his wife Marie Louise de Belleisle, to Baron Hugo Ernestus Krebs. In the first place, that marriage is not among the records of the Cathedral at Mobile, In the second place, the date is incorrect. In the third place, Joseph La Pointe's wife was not Marie Louise de Belle Isle. In the fourth place never did he use the word "Baron" before his name, in any record I have seen. This entry is pure supposition.

1736 - marriage of Baudrau & There was a baptism in that year, but not a marriage.

1740 - baptism of daughter of Guillory, inhabitant of Dauphine, As a matter of fact, the entry says "Massacre" - which is the same thing. It does not say Dauphine.

1743 - I have 1742 for the death of Mme. Mozel.

1750 - Marriage of La Pointe - Rochon - erroneous.

Marriage of Baron Hugo Ernestus Krebs to Marie de "Jayeuse" - This record is not there.

Moreover, his first wife was still living then.

Do we really want to make him a bigamist? I don't.

1752 - Mouthier was far from being a priest. In fact, spent his time quarrelling with them. He was commandant at Fort Toulouse, and, having driven away the priest, he had to baptise whenever it became necessary. (see Colonial Mobile, Hamilton, p. 193.)

1753 - Death of Antoine Chaumont. This passeth all understanding. Almost. Antoine Chaumont never did set foot in Mobile. I told Miss Rapier how many daughters he had, who they married, and when Antoine died. I certainly did NOT say he did it in Mobile. He didn't. He died in France. That record is not there. And he is not the ancestor of the Krebs family, in case anyone cares.

1758 - I didn't notice the death of Duroux among the records. Bossu states the Duroux's body was stripped by the mutineers and thrown into the sea at Cat Island.

1776 - Death of Baron Hugo Ernestus Krebs in New Orleans. His burial is not on record at Mobile; nor is it at e St. Louis Cathedral in New Orleans. Besides, he did not die in 1776. What he did do was to make his Will in 1776 in New Orleans; but there is often a big difference in when one makes a Will and when one died. He did not happen to die that year; he was both living and present at the marriage of a daughter in 1778.

1780 - this is not the same month and day I have for the death of Augustin Rochon.

1782- The wife of "Claude" Dupont was not named Marie Ann. Besides - it's not there and they never called him just "Claude in the Church records.

1791 - death of Antoine Narbonne. Not the same year or month I have.

1806 - Jan. 20 - Baptism of a daughter of Joseph Krebs and his wife Marie Louisa Bryant ??? I can't imagine what that could be. I can see how Bryant might be a mis-reading of Dupont. - but Joseph Krebs, husband of Marie Louise Dupont, was dead by 1805. His son Joseph had not married at all by 1806, and when he did it was not to anyone remotely resembling Bryant. I went through the registers farther than 1806, and did not see anything like that.-

Mrs. Gautier, please consider that this is just for your own personal information - I really don't want to discredit anybody. And, after all, there's no reason why I should - my purpose in doing this research was to get it straight for myself and my children, and that I have been able to do. (But it is a shame for others to be misled by the above mish - mash) I'm sure the boy did not realize what a dis - service he was doing.
